

Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The National Anthem

God save our gracious King!
Long live our noble King!
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Blessing

Revd. Ana Lawrence, Anglican Churches in Street

In darkness and in light, in trouble and in joy, help us heavenly Father, to trust your love, to serve your purpose, and to praise your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
And the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be with you and remain with you today and always. Amen.

Following this act of remembrance, you will be welcome to parade back to the Royal British Legion for refreshments.

An Act of Remembrance

Order of Service

Remembrance Sunday

Welcome & Introduction

Rev. Ana Lawrence, Anglican Churches in Street

We gather here today in the presence of Almighty God to remember all those who died in the service of their country, for those who paid the ultimate sacrifice that we and our children might live. We offer our worship, praise and thanksgiving; to dedicate ourselves anew in the love of God to the cause of freedom, justice and truth.

Hymn

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone, short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all its sons away;
they fly forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

Bible Reading

914 Squadron Cadet

Reflection

Act of Remembrance

Rev. Ana Lawrence, Anglican Churches in Street

Let us remember before God, and commend to his sure keeping those who have died for their country in war:
those whom we knew and whose memory we treasure,
and all who have lived and died in the service of humankind.

The Exhortation

Parade Leader

“They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
we will remember them.”

All: We will remember them

The Last Post

2—minute silence are observed

The Reveille

The Kohima Epitaph

A representative of the Street Branch of the British Legion

When you go home, tell them of us and say:
“For your tomorrow, we gave our today.”

The Laying of the Wreaths

The names of those to be remembered are read out.

An act of commitment

All: Loving God, we pledge ourselves
To serve you and this neighbourhood;
To bring relief to all who are in need,
And comfort to the sad, lonely, and distressed;
Keep us ever mindful of the struggles
And achievements of former generations
And of this place where we can make our home,
Now and in the days to come.
Amen.

Prayer

Remember, O Lord,
all those who have died the death of honour
and are departed in the hope of resurrection to eternal life, especially the Officers, Men and Women of our Sea, Land and Air Forces,
to whom it was given to lay down their lives
for the cause of freedom and justice.
In that place of light,
from where sorrow and mourning are far vanished,
give them rest, O Lord of life.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Saviour.
Amen.
